Culture Builds Community!

SaskCulture Inc. is looking for examples of successful cultural programs to use in our advocacy and public relations work. If your cultural program or activity had a positive impact on your community, or individuals within your community, we would appreciate hearing more about it.

During the current year we are focusing on the following areas:

- Y cultural tourism;
- Y culture in education;
- Y human resource development;
- Y 1st Nations culture;
- Y Métis culture;
- Y culture activity helping to build a community;
- Y cultural youth development / youth at risk;
- Y culture assisting health and wellness (including families and disabled);
- Y culture assisting rural and northern residents;
- Y culture contributing to quality of life;
- Y and culture contributing to economic growth.

Please check off the appropriate box(es) indicating where your activity made a positive difference and provide a brief summary below. We may follow-up with you and write an article for our newsletter, Cultural Report, or include the information in our advocacy materials.

Thank you for helping, and congratulations on a successful project!
