

July 2021 Deadline

Organization	Community	Project	Allocation
Chrysalis Theatre Incorporated	Saskatoon	My Name is Rachel Corrie will be a live performance by the Chrysalis Theatre. The play explores the damage caused by racism.	$ 2,000.00
International Festivals Lloydminster Society	Lloydminster	Lloydfest 2021 "The Movie" will provide nearly 3 hours of multicultural entertainment, suitable during COVID 19 restrictions. Lloydfest is a 2-day mental wellness staycation event for the entire family that showcases our rich, diverse heritage through a collage of multicultural performances, food, music, and craft.	$ 2,000.00
Musée Ukraina Museum	Saskatoon	Live Well: My Ukrainian Upbringing and Other Stories Book Launch with author Marion Mutala involves book readings, sharing of stories, singing, music, dancing, and food. She will be sharing her experiences writing her most recent book about her Ukrainian family and her prairie roots. This celebration of Ukrainian culture is open to all other cultural groups to attend and participate.	$ 2,000.00
TransSask Support Services Inc.	Saskatoon	TransCreate: Queer Self-Expression In Uncertain Times project seeks to re-connect trans and gender diverse individuals around Saskatchewan with their creativity, passions, and voice through the digital arts in a post-Covid world.	$ 2,000.00
TOTAL			$ 8,000.00