

Community Cultural Engagement and Planning (CCEP) Funding Recipients 2025-2026

July 2025 Deadline

Organization	Community	Project Description	Allocation
City of Prince Albert	Prince Albert	The Culture on the Move project will see the installation of Indigenous artwork in transit shelters in the city. These installations will share stories that reflect the community's Indigenous roots, while also demonstrating the City's ongoing commitment to reconciliation.	$ 5,000.00
City of Yorkton	Yorkton	The Cultural Plan Cafe project addresses the lack of regular, informational community engagement opportunities that align with the recently (2024) adopted Community Cultural Plan's goals. Key aspects of Yorkton's Community Culture Plan will be explored by hosting inclusive monthly luncheons, supporting informal relationship building over the meal and moving into structured conversations around the "Actions" of the Community Cultural Plan. Additionally, when there are relevant events, online training or programs, participants will gather for the training.	$ 3,600.00
Muskoday First Nation	Muskoday First Nation	Community Driven Cultural Plan 2026 - 2031 - Honoring our Journey is a cultural plan project for the next six years (2026-2031) building on the momentum of the previous (2020-2025) cultural plan, particularly the significant milestone of establishing a multi-million dollar cultural center.	$ 20,000.00
Qu'Appelle Valley Friendship Centre Inc.	Fort Qu'Appelle	The Sacred Ties: Bridging Culture & Community project aims to engage off-reserve Indigenous community members in Fort Qu'Appelle to assess their cultural needs, identify barriers, and develop strategies for cultural revitalization and support. Through community consultation and research, guided by traditional Knowledge Keepers, the initiative seeks to foster cultural identity, strengthen support networks, and ensure accessibility to teachings and resources for Indigenous individuals and families living in urban environments.	$ 5,000.00
TOTAL			$ 33,600.00
