Please read the Guidelines carefully before starting the grant application. Applicants should contact consultant Tomasín Playford at tplayford@saskculture.ca before submitting an application to check if their project idea is eligible and to see if this grant program is the best fit.

If you face any barriers (language, technology, accessibility challenges, etc.) in navigating the criteria, application questions, and the application process, please reach out to the Consultant for details about the Accessibility Fund.

This grant has a maximum grant request amount of $2,000 and is intended for small-scale initiatives (overall budgets of less than $5,000), as defined on the last page of the Guidelines.

Purpose

The Small Grant Accessibility Program (SGAP) aims to provide support to grassroots, unique and innovative cultural initiatives that respond to emergent needs or changes in the cultural sector, and create access for first-time and under-served applicants. SGAP is intended for small-scale initiatives (overall budgets of less than $5,000), as defined on the last page of the Guidelines.

The SGAP objectives are to:

- support new or underserved organizations that have never been awarded a SaskCulture grant;
- support grassroots, unique and innovative cultural initiatives;
- respond to emergent needs, time-sensitive opportunities or changes in the cultural sector;
- encourage youth-led cultural initiatives and leadership opportunities for young cultural leaders;
- support and strengthen communities through cultural activities in Saskatchewan, at the individual, group, and community level; and
- support the development and capacity of cultural organizations through professional development.

Priorities

Priority will be given to initiatives that:

- provide significant opportunities to meet the objectives of the SGAP;
- deliver relevant cultural activities based on cultural impact, accessibility, and service to communities;
- are grassroots initiatives;
- are from applicants who have not been awarded SaskCulture funding before;
- have an Indigenous, ethnocultural, 2SLGBTQ+ cultural, and/or disability cultural focus¹;

¹ SaskCulture is currently consulting with community about its programs. Part of this consultation may result in changes to language and terminology over time.

- promote accessibility and social inclusion;
- do not fit the criteria and timeline for other SaskCulture grant programs;
- take place in the province's northern and/or rural or otherwise underserved communities;
- are supported by clear initiative plans and budget detail; and
- are focused on Truth and Reconciliation, Anti-Racism or Anti-Oppression professional development for organizations.

If you are unsure whether your initiative fits the purpose of this grant, please contact the Consultant.

- A recommended maximum of 10% of the total grant request can be utilized for advertising and promotion costs for the initiative. A strong rationale would need to be provided to exceed this amount.
