

April 2016 Deadline

Organization	Community	Project	Allocation
The Indigenous Peoples Artist Collective of Prince Albert Inc.	Prince Albert	Reconciliation, Celebration, Transformation will be a series of visual artist residencies working with community organizations, to produce mural pieces to be displayed in downtown Prince Albert	$ 7,500
The Crossing Theatre Company	Saskatoon	Tahkwahkum, Autumn Storytelling Gathering will be a four-day event bringing together Indigenous Knowledge Keepers, storytellers, community members, artists, musicians, dancers, singers and theatre professionals	$ 7,500
Saskatoon Indian & Métis Friendship Centre	Saskatoon	The Indian & Métis Pavilion will be a gathering place to celebrate Métis and First Nations culture while providing education and awareness to the non-Aboriginal community	$ 5,000
Duck Lake Historical Museum Society	Duck Lake	The Art of Storytelling will encourage the youth of Duck Lake to write stories about their culture and create art work, and incorporate them in a story book	$ 3,000
La Loche Friendship Centre	La Loche	Youth and Elders Voyage to Batoche will engage local elders and youth in Métis history while they paddle down the South Saskatchewan River in voyageur canoes and camp at Batoche	$ 7,000
Ile-à-la-Crosse Friendship Centre Inc.	Ile-à-la-Crosse	Friendship Centre 22nd Annual Outdoor Family Wellness Gathering will offer educational, cultural, health & wellness workshops and recreational activities to promote physical, emotional, mental and spiritual health among local youth	$ 5,000
YWCA Regina	Regina	Culture Counts will acknowledge that Métis culture is distinct and unique by teaching about it culture through stories and hands on activities at monthly events	$ 4,000
Camponi Housing Corporation	Saskatoon	Camponi Cultural Camp will instruct participants on plant use for food, medicine and practical usage	$ 5,000
Métis Nation - Saskatchewan ER II A INC.	Yorkton	Preserving Métis Culture will be a Métis Culture Camp with many different cultural activities, including youth trip to Back to Batoche	$ 4,000
Lac Pelletier Lac L Plume Historical Association Inc.	Swift Current	Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the Goodwin House will be a celebration of the reopening of the Goodwin House, which will include fiddlers, jiggers, and provide a history of Métis tradition	$ 2,000
TOTAL			$ 50,000.00