

October 2015 Deadline

Organization	Community	Project	Allocation
Willow Bunch Museum & Heritage Society Inc.	Willow Bunch	The Last Meeting Project - This project will help complete the Jean Louis Légaré/Métis/Sitting Bull room in displaying mannequins and artwork portraying as close a semblance to the first settlers.	$ 10,000.00
Biggar Recreation Valley Inc	Biggar	Celebrating Culture - Celebrates Métis Culture and Arts, Music, Beading, Embroidery and Language.	$ 10,000.00
Friends of Batoche Historic Site Inc.	Wakaw	Kidfest at Batoche 2016 - This event will focus on Métis storytelling and the Michif language. This will include Storytellers and a Michif language "Bingo" game.	$ 10,000.00
New Dance Horizons	Regina	New Dance Horizons ' Métis Dance Braid Project ' - Through a series of workshops and special events, this project will provide opportunity for exchange and experiential learning about origins, traditions and contemporary Métis culture.	$ 3,200.00
Saskatoon Indian & Métis Friendship Centre	Saskatoon	Métis Culture, Workshops and Jigging competition - SIMFC will host a jigging competition, genealogy and fiddle lessons, creating a legacy where Métis history and practices become a regular part of community life.	$ 4,400.00
John Arcand Fiddle Fest Inc.	Saskatoon	19th Annual John Arcand Fiddle Fest - Showcases workshops, Métis Cultural Camp, concerts, competitions, old time dances and children's activity area.	$ 5,000.00
Nature Saskatchewan	Regina	Jim Settee: The Way Home - Film and Workshop Tour - This tour celebrates and transmits Métis culture and traditions through storytelling, film, and interactive workshops centered on the teachings of Saskatchewan Métis Elder Jim Settee.	$ 10,000.00
RielCo Productions Inc.	Melville	The Trial of Louis Riel - Plays annually for all Saskatchewan schools and general public, passing on this important story for future Metis and Aboriginal generations instilling pride and recognition.	$ 5,000.00
Station 20 West Development Corporation	Saskatoon	The Métis - Revisited at James L. Alexander School Community - By inviting honored Métis guests to the greater school community , it preserves, strengthen and transmit Métis culture within the very diverse school community.	$ 6,000.00
TOTAL			$ 63,600.00